WING BURSARY
2023

1. Purpose:

The purpose of the 879 (Earl MacLeod) RCAF Wing Bursary is to encourage personal achievement of Royal Canadian Air Cadets in 147 Airwolf Air Cadet Squadron. Specifically:

- Educational pursuits
- Enhancement of the Air Cadet aims and objectives; and
- Facilitate career opportunities

2. Nature of Bursary: These bursaries are for two Air Cadets selected by CO 147 Airwolf, the Parent Society Chair, and the 879 Wing Liaison Officer(s).

3. Age of Applicant: Senior cadets are those turning 16 years of age before 01 August. Cadets with 16th birthdays on or after 01 August are considered Junior Cadets.

→ Junior Bursary for $200 is for applicants aged 13 - 15

→ Senior Bursary for $300 is for applicants aged 16 - 18.

→ Applicants must be 2nd year or higher in the Cadet program

→ Senior cadets active with the squadron when applications open but who will age out before the end of the training year are eligible to apply.

4. Applications may be completed on the form provided by 879 Wing or in an alternate electronic format implemented by 147 Airwolf.

5. Due Dates: Application due dates will be determined by 147 Airwolf. The ranks and names of successful applicants for each bursary will be provided to 879 Wing at least two weeks before the Annual Ceremonial Review or alternate presentation date.

6. Presentation: Bursaries will be presented at the Annual Ceremonial Review (ACR) by a representative of 879 (Earl MacLeod) Wing. Successful candidates must be present at the ACR or forfeit the award.
